CAPELL, William Sykes

1841-1935

The son of Richard and Sarah CAPELL (née THREADGOLD), William was born at Little Brington on 26 May 1841 and baptised at Great Brington on 27 Jun. Upon leaving school at 14, he was awarded a 7-year apprenticeship as a shoemaker, at the end of which he moved to Sproxton, Leics to take up employment at the village school. William married Emma Sophia HENSON at Melton Mowbray, Leics in 1864. They took jobs as schoolmaster and schoolmistress at Great Horkelesley, Essex followed by similar posts at Tingrith, Beds before moving to Charwelton School in the mid-1890s although Emma worked for a while at Daventry. William and his wife came to Preston Capes upon his retirement in 1906. He died on 12 Mar 1935 at the age of 94 and was buried in the churchyard on 15 Mar.

Obituary:

Gavin died on the 25th January after a long period in hospital. His funeral and thanksgiving services were both held on the 3rd of February and taken by Rev. Stephen Adams (of this Benefice 91-97), assisted by our Revd Sue. Gavin was liked and loved by very many people and that over 250 people attended his farewells in freezing conditions, spoke powerfully of the high esteem in which he and Toots are held at a time like this. The collection in church amounted to over £2400 when grossed up with Gift Aid, (to be shared with Cure Parkinson's). This was a truly remarkable sum that again said it all about Gavin's friendliness and wide popularity. Toots Cowen has asked for use of this column to say; 'Can I thank all those people who have written with touching letters or cards. Thank you to all the people who kindly decorated the church, provided one hundred car spaces in driveways and the field for parking on the day, and the stalwart 'marshals' who did their successful best to manage the influx of traffic in icy conditions. Everyone's help has been so appreciated and Gavin would have been delighted by the response of all in the village too.'
