GIBBINS, John James

1851-1932

1930-31 aged ~78

The son of John and Sarah GIBBINS (née MATHEWS), John was baptised at Preston Capes on 14 Sep 1851. He left the parish in the late 1860s and joined the 4th Regiment of Foot (King's Own Royals) where he was recorded both as John and then James GIBBONS, a private serving initially at their barracks in Chester. He married in the early 1870s but she died within a couple of years. By the mid-1870s, James was stationed at Farnborough, Hants where he met and married Matilda Annie COGGER at Farnborough Parish Church on 9 Jul 1878. He earned his stripes as a corporal and served in the First Boer War in South Africa during 1880 returning to Chester Barracks, Cheshire as a sergeant. James' next posting was to Weedon Ordnance Depot about 1883. After his wife died in early 1886, James married Lucy Kate KING later that year and moved to Greenwich, Kent where he was employed as an army clerk at the Royal Artillery Barracks and later became the export foreman there. They moved to Woolwich, Kent in 1903 and in 1911 James spent some time in the Seaman's Hospital at Greenwich. After his retirement, they moved to Charlton, Kent where he died of a heart attack on 19 Jun 1932 at the age of 80 and after a gun-carriage funeral was buried in Charlton Cemetery.

GIBBS, Alfred William

1852-1911>

The daughter of Thomas and Mary Ann GIBBS (née FENNEMORE), Alfred was baptised at Preston Capes on 9 Apr 1852. He worked as a farm labourer and left the parish for Farthingstone where he married Phoebe JENNINGS in 1873. His work being seasonal he was forced to move around and moved to Daventry in the late 1870s. On occasion Alfred was unemployed and in the 1881 census, he and his family were living at the Towcester Union Workhouse. His family does not appear in the 1891 census but Alfred is living with his parents in Daventry where he was working as a farm labourer. Ten years later he was still living with his mother and was employed by Daventry Corporation as a road labourer.

GREEN, John

1868-1939

The son of George and Martha GREEN (née HAYCOCK), John was born at Catesby on 10 Dec 1868 and was baptised at Hellidon on 29 Jan 1869. He attended a private boy's school at 21 Horse Fair, Banbury, Oxon and continued his education from the age of 13 at Banbury Academy. After leaving school he worked with his father on their farm until he married Catherine Eleanor DUNKLEY at Great Creaton parish church on 27 May 1899 when they moved to Fawsley. They moved to Preston Capes in Jan 1902 where John leased 245 acres from the Fawsley estate, although only 32 acres were in Preston Capes. John left the parish at the end of Jun 1919 when he rented a farm and 196 acres at Farthingstone. After John retired about 1936 he moved to Whittlebury where he died on 13 Sep 1939 at the age of 70.
